

John Hume makes a key move for credit unions

Former SDLP leader and Foyle MP John Hume tries out the Credit Union's new CUonline service under the watchful eye of Alex Dunne, managing director of Wellington Computer Systems which designed the package. The new facility means that Credit Union members can pay bills, transfer funds and apply for loans online